Session One this Wednesday.

The stories of Jesus are familiar to most of us. We have walked the paths of his life with him and his disciples over and over again. We could easily think that we are finished gleaning any new wisdom from these stories. The good news for those of us who have already read Mark's Gospel, the first testament to the life of Jesus Christ, is that this living story, with its living characters, is never finished with us.

When we think we have heard it all before, we find a passage that challenges us in a new way. We turn a page and hear our own voice mingled with those of the disciples around the table who ask Jesus, "Is it me?" We find ourselves surprised by our empathy for the Pharisees; we have felt some righteous indignation of our own when someone challenged a tradition we loved. We read about the woman anointing Jesus with oil and wonder what extravagant gifts we give because we love God. Each time we encounter the Gospel of Mark, Christ confronts us with the opportunity to turn around, find the path forever new to us, and follow him on it.

Second Sunday Praise Service—today at 6:00 PM

Join us for uplifting music led by the Tabernacle Praise Team, a time of prayer and testimony, and a message from our pastor.

Mark Your Calendar NOW for Royal Ambassador Race Day

Deacon Communion to the Homebound

Today at 2:00 p.m. All Deacons (active & reserve) are encouraged to participate in this Deacon Ministry—you will be blessed!

From the Gardens and Memorials Committee

Psalm 1:3 says that a praiseworthy man is "like a tree deeply rooted alongside brooks of water, that yields its fruit in its season, and whose leaf never withers." It is often thought that this refers to the Olive tree, because it is both evergreen and bears seasonal fruit, but the Olive Tree does not need a lot of water, and so does not grow along streams. This probably refers to the Date Palm or the Etrog, the citrus fruit tree that is mentioned in the Bible in connection with the Festival of Sukkot. The Gardens and Memorials Committee thanks you for your support.

Important Update from the Food Service Committee

As of January 1, the Food Service Committee is responsible for the Wednesday evening meal. They have made arrangements to have the evening meal catered. Therefore, it is vitally important that reservations are made and/or canceled. If a reservation is made for the meal, and the person does not eat, he/she is expected to honor that reservation and pay for the meal. The Food Service Committee is open to any suggestions or volunteers to help.
